SUE BIRD

20 assists away from 2,500 career dimes in WNBA play.

120 assists away from passing Ticha Penicheiro as the league's leader in career assists. Penicheiro (2,599 assists) played 454 games (15 seasons) in the WNBA.

7.7 assists per game in 2017, which ranks first in the WNBA.

44.4% Bird knocked down three-balls at a blistering rate in 2016, connecting on a career-high 44.4% from deep.

5,614 Bird ranks ninth in WNBA all-time for total points.

456 games played. Bird has never come off the bench in WNBA action.

36 at age 36, Bird is currently the oldest active player in the league.

JEWELL LOYD

9.5% Loyd's 3-point shooting percentage increased significantly from year one to year two.

16.5 PPG in 2016, jumping 5.8 points from her rookie season in 2015 to her sophomore campaign in 2016.

89.8% from the stripe for her career, including a 14-of-14 performance on 8/30/15 vs. Washington, a Storm record for most free throws in a single game without a miss.

18.4 PPG in 2017, sixth in the WNBA.

44.3 % shooting clip in 2017.

28.5 inch vertical. Standing 5-10, Loyd is able to grab the 10-foot rim and can dunk a tennis ball.

2 double-double games in 2016, 2 30+ point games in 2016.

11 games with 25-plus points in 3 years.

BREANNA STEWART

SERIES NOTES

- In two wins against the Mercury last year, Jewell Loyd led the way for the Storm by tallying 32 and 30 points.
- Seattle split with Phoenix in the 2017 preseason slate, claiming an 86-64 win at home before dropping a 72-55 decision on the road. Sami Whitcomb and Carolyn Swords led the Storm in game one with 15 points apiece.
- The largest Storm win came 15 years ago in Sue Bird's rookie season, when the Storm bested Phoenix by 41 points (89-48) on July 19, 2002.
- On May 20, 2016, Jewell Loyd recorded each of the Storm's final 10 points, including the go-ahead jumper with 2.9 seconds remaining, to overcome a seven-point deficit with just over three minutes left in the game. The Storm won 81-80 thanks to Loyd's 30-point effort.
- The Storm dropped nine in row to the Mercury between 2014-15 before Seattle went 2-1 last season. Seattle has swept (5-0 in 2010, 4-0 in 2013) Phoenix twice in its 17-year history.

2016 RESULTS VS. PHOENIX

Seattle 62, Phoenix 86 - Talking Stick Resort Arena (9/15/16)

The Seattle Storm fell 86-62 to the Phoenix Mercury at Talking Stick Resort Arena, snapping a four game winning streak. Having already secured its postseason berth, Seattle remains in the seventh spot with one game remaining. The Storm (15-18) holds the edge over Phoenix (15-18) due to its two head-to-head wins earlier this season. Rookie forward Breanna Stewart paced the Storm with team highs of 14 points and nine rebounds, and frontcourt partner Crystal Langhorne finished with 10 points and eight boards. Second-year guard Jewell Loyd added 11 for the Storm, which shot just 35.0 percent from the field compared to 47.8 percent for the Mercury. Kaleena Mosqueda-Lewis scored 11 points off the bench, hitting a trio of three-pointers. Brittney Griner scored a game-high 21 points for Phoenix, while Diana Taurasi poured in 15 and Candice Dupree added 14. After a slow start, Phoenix scored 12 unanswered points to build a commanding lead early in the first quarter, including a trio of jumpers from Penny Taylor. Stewart stopped the run with a pair of free throws that cut it to 12-6 midway through the frame. But after Mosqueda-Lewis knocked down her second three-pointer, the Mercury went on another huge run, notching 12 straight points to push its lead to 28-12. Mosqueda-Lewis hit another outside jumper early in the second, but the Mercury would only increase its edge as the rest of the Storm struggled from the field. The lead was up to 20 points with four minutes to go in the half, and Seattle faced a 50-29 deficit at halftime. Stewart hit a pair of jumpers in the opening minutes of the second half to help Seattle cut into the lead, and the Storm would go on to outscore Phoenix 21-17 in the third quarter. After Phoenix was ahead 67-50 heading into the fourth, Dupree and Taurasi were the catalysts down the stretch, helping the Mercury put the game out of reach.

Seattle 95, Phoenix 81 - KeyArena, Seattle, Wash. (6/3/16)

When the Seattle Storm and Phoenix Mercury met for the first time this year on May 20, Jewell Loyd scored a career-high 30 points in a victory for the Storm. Friday night at KeyArena, Loyd once again posted a new career high against Phoenix, notching 32 points to guide Seattle to a 95-81 win. Loyd, who reached the 500-point milestone Friday night, became the third player in franchise history to score 30 on multiple occasions. The reigning WNBA Rookie of the Year finished 12-of-18 from the field and 4-for-7 from three-point range as the Storm improved to 3-4 and moved ahead of Phoenix in the league standings. Loyd had 19 in first half alone, and the Notre Dame product also tied career highs with nine rebounds and four offensive boards. Seattle's 95 points and 12 three-pointers on Friday represent season highs. Four different Storm players had at least 14 points on the night, including rookie forward Breanna Stewart, who finished just shy of a triple-double with 10 rebounds and nine assists. Stewart, who was named WNBA Rookie of the Month for May, recorded her third double-double of the season. The teams went back and forth early in the first quarter, but the Storm gained a lead midway through the period that it never relinquished the rest of the way. Seattle was ahead by double digits throughout the fourth quarter and led by as many as 16. Storm forward Alysha Clark, after missing the previous game due to a knee bruise, came off the bench Friday and scored five points in 18 minutes. Friday's win marked Seattle's first home victory over Phoenix in the last five matchups at KeyArena. The Mercury was led by Penny Taylor, who started 6-for-6 from the field and finished with 19 points. The Storm held former MVP Diana Taurasi to eight points on 3-of-9 shooting.

Seattle 81, Phoenix 80 - Talking Stick Resort Arena, Phoenix, Ariz. (5/20/2016)

Jewell Loyd scored a career-high 30 points, including the game-winning shot with 2.9 seconds remaining, to give the Seattle Storm an 81-80 win over the Phoenix Mercury at Talking Stick Resort Arena on Friday night. Loyd, the reigning WNBA Rookie of the Year, scored 12 of her 30 points in the fourth quarter as the Storm (1-1) picked up its first win of the 2016 season. With Seattle trailing by one in the final seconds, Loyd dribbled from the top of the key toward the right wing, banking in a shot before Phoenix called timeout to set up an attempt of its own. Diana Taurasi was unable to convert on the other end, and the Storm secured its first win over the Mercury since 2013, snapping a nine-game losing streak against its Western Conference foe. Loyd, who finished 12-of-20 from the field, became the sixth player in franchise history to score 30 points in a game. Rookie forward Breanna Stewart recorded her first career double-double with 14 points and 13 rebounds, tying Lauren Jackson for the most rebounds by a Seattle rookie. Sue Bird added 17 points, including 4-of-7 from three-point range, to go along with four assists in Friday's victory. The Storm got off to a slow start on Friday, trailing by as many as 13 in the first quarter and finishing with just 12 points in the period. Seattle outscored Phoenix in each of the remaining three quarters, thanks in large part to nine converted three-point attempts. After making just one shot from beyond the arc in its season-opening loss, the Storm made eight three-pointers in the first half on Friday, including seven in the second quarter. At halftime, Bird was 4-of-6 from deep and Loyd was 3-of-4. Phoenix held a 43-37 edge at the break, but the Storm came from behind to take a 51-50 lead, its first advantage since the opening minute. That lead lasted just 58 seconds, and Seattle wasn't in front again until Loyd's game-winning shot in the final seconds. Crystal Langhorne had 11 points and seven boards on Friday, making it four Seattle players in double figures.

LAST GAME

Seattle 75, San Antonio 57 - KeyArena (6/18/17)

Today marked the first time that former University of Washington Husky Kelsey Plum played in Seattle since her collegiate career came to an end. She left with a bad taste in her mouth, as the Storm turned in a complete game on both ends of the floor, beating the San Antonio Stars, 75-57. Breanna Stewart filled up the box score all night, finishing with a career-high five blocks to go along with 22 points and 15 rebounds for her 15th career double-double. Crystal Langhorne scored 10 points for the second straight game, and Sue Bird captained the offense on her way to nine assists. Alysha Clark scored six early points while Bird dished out three assists, giving the Storm a 10-5 lead and forcing San Antonio head coach Vickie Johnson to call her first timeout at the 5:29 mark. The Stars came back with eight unanswered points before Sami Whitcomb rattled home her only three pointer of the evening to tie the game at 13. Stewart pulled in her 10th rebound of the first half with 1:12 to spare. A fade away jumper in the post gave her seven points in addition to three blocks. The second year forward anchored a defense that held San Antonio to just 11 points in the second quarter. The Storm (6-5) took a 37-26 lead, its biggest of the half, into the locker room. San Antonio converted on just four of its 16 field goals (25.0 percent) in the second quarter. Langhorne was Seattle's leading scorer with eight points at the break. Seattle missed its first four shots of the second half, allowing San Antonio to claw its way back to within six points (37-31). Stewart quelled the comeback by scoring eight consecutive points to give Seattle a 45-33 lead just over halfway through the third. Whitcomb slithered her way through San Antonio's defense for a layup that pushed Seattle's lead to 51-36 with 1:54 on the third quarter clock. San Antonio again managed to make just four field goals for the second consecutive quarter. Ramu Tokashiki sank a mid-range jumper to extend Seattle's lead to 15 with 7:41 to go. Following an emphatic block by Stewart on the defensive end, Bird led a fast break that ended with her hitting a 15-foot jump shot to stretch the gap to 19.

PREVIOUS GAME

Seattle 86, Atlanta 91 - KeyArena (6/13/17)

The Seattle Storm returned home from a three-game road trip for a Tuesday night clash with the Atlanta Dream at KeyArena in rematch of last year's first-round playoff game. The game was one of the most exciting of the young WNBA season, as the two teams needed an overtime period to settle things. At the end, Atlanta came out with a 91-86 road victory. Jewell Loyd opened the game by scoring the first nine points for Seattle, and she ultimately tied a season high with 27 points, 16 of which came in the first half. A Jordan Hooper corner three gave Atlanta a 27-20 lead in the second quarter, which was quickly cut to 27-23 when Sue Bird responded by swishing a trey ball of her own with 6:30 remaining in the half. Atlanta's lead would swell to as many as 10 points in the first half. Damiris Dantas' jumper with 2:36 left gave the Dream a 41-31 lead. Seattle (5-5) made the score close (42-38) entering halftime thanks to a 7-1 run to close out the second quarter. After the break, a Crystal Langhorne bucket gave Seattle a 46-44 lead, its first since the Storm led 4-0 in the game's opening sequences. The third quarter came to a close with the Dream clinging to a five-point lead (62-57) thanks to a Meighan Simmons three pointer from the top of the key. A three pointer by Dantas ballooned Atlanta's fourth quarter lead to eight points (67-59) with 7:53 to play. With the score at 77-75 and just 37.3 seconds left in regulation, Loyd drove hard to the basket and drew a foul on Atlanta's Matee Ajavon. Loyd calmly buried both foul shots, her 13th and 14th of the night, to even things up at 77. With 20.6 seconds remaining, Seattle inbounded the ball with a chance to win the game. As time expired, Loyd hoisted a contested shot that went begging, sending the Storm to its first overtime game of the season. Bird drilled a three on Seattle's first possession to make it 80-79 Seattle, but the Storm came up empty on its next six possessions. Bria Holmes went 7-for-8 from the line in the overtime period, and Atlanta ultimately found itself with an 86-80 lead. A layup from Clark brought the Storm to within two (86-84) in the game's final seconds. After two Noelle Quinn free throws carved Atlanta's lead to 87-86, Breanna Stewart was called for a clear path foul and the Dream was able to seal the game at the free throw line, winning 91-86.

LAST GAME VS. TONIGHT'S OPPONENT

Seattle 62, Phoenix 86 - Talking Stick Resort Arena (9/15/16)

The Seattle Storm fell 86-62 to the Phoenix Mercury at Talking Stick Resort Arena, snapping a four game winning streak. Having already secured its postseason berth, Seattle remains in the seventh spot with one game remaining. The Storm (15-18) holds the edge over Phoenix (15-18) due to its two head-to-head wins earlier this season. Rookie forward Breanna Stewart paced the Storm with team highs of 14 points and nine rebounds, and frontcourt partner Crystal Langhorne finished with 10 points and eight boards. Second-year guard Jewell Loyd added 11 for the Storm, which shot just 35.0 percent from the field compared to 47.8 percent for the Mercury. Kaleena Mosqueda-Lewis scored 11 points off the bench, hitting a trio of three-pointers. After a slow start, Phoenix scored 12 unanswered points to build a commanding lead early in the first quarter, including a trio of jumpers from Penny Taylor. Stewart stopped the run with a pair of free throws that cut it to 12-6 midway through the frame. But after Mosqueda-Lewis knocked down her second three-pointer, the Mercury went on another huge run, notching 12 straight points to push its lead to 28-12. Mosqueda-Lewis hit another outside jumper early in the second, but the Mercury would only increase its edge as the rest of the Storm struggled from the field. The lead was up to 20 points with four minutes to go in the half, and Seattle faced a 50-29 deficit at half-time. Stewart hit a pair of jumpers in the opening minutes of the second half to help Seattle cut into the lead, and the Storm would go on to outscore Phoenix 21-17 in the third quarter. The deficit was trimmed to as little as 15, as Loyd scored a pair of buckets late in the frame to keep Seattle within striking distance. After Phoenix was ahead 67-50 heading into the fourth, Dupree and Taurasi were the catalysts down the stretch, helping the Mercury put the game out of reach.

PLAYER NOTES

PETERSON, MONTGOMERY HEAD WEST

In the 2017 WNBA Draft presented by State Farm, the Storm selected Alexis Peterson (15th pick, Syracuse) in the second round, followed by Lanay Montgomery (30th pick, West Virginia) in the third round. The all-time assist leader at Syracuse and reigning ACC Player of the Year, Peterson served as the floor general for the Orange, totaling 1,978 points and 590 assists to cap her career. Montgomery, a 6-5 center, averaged 10.6 points, 8.9 boards and 2.8 blocks per game in 2016-17 on the way to leading the Mountaineers to their first Big 12 Tournament title.

ANYTHING YOU CAN DO...

Breanna Stewart notched 2016 WNBA Rookie of the Year honors to cap her inaugural professional campaign and help Seattle become the first franchise in league history to garner back-to-back Rookie of the Year honorees (Jewell Loyd, 2015). In addition to posting 12 double-doubles, Stewart averaged a team-high 18.3 points and 9.3 rebounds to carry the Storm to its first playoff appearance since 2013.

FLYING UP THE RANKINGS

In 2017, Sue Bird has already moved up two spots in the all-time rankings for points. With a 10-point performance at San Antonio, which was also her first double-figure effort in 2017, Bird passed Katie Douglas to climb to the 10th spot. Two days later, she netted a season-high 11 at Indiana to pass DeLisha Milton-Jones to scoot to No. 9 in the rankings. Bird currently has 5,614 points for her career and needs 386 more to become the eighth player in WNBA history to eclipse the 6,000-point mark. On the year, Bird is averaging 10.1 points per game.

BIRD: RECORD WATCHING

Entering Sunday's contest, Sue Bird sits only eight steals away from reaching 600, as well as 386 points from becoming the eighth player in WNBA history to eclipse the 6,000-point total. The 36-year-old is the oldest active player in the league, and in her 16th season with the Storm, Bird needs only 120 more dimes to pass Ticha Penicheiro as the WNBA's career assist leader.

ONE OF THE ALL-TIME BEST DISHIN' THE ROCK

Sue Bird is just 120 assists shy of passing Ticha Penicheiro (2,599) on the WNBA all-time assist rankings. She boasts a 5.4 assist per game career average, sitting in second place on the all-time list. Bird led the league in dimes per game in 2016, dishing out 5.8 en route to the WNBA Peak Performer award in the category.

SHE'S A THIEF

Now in her 16th season in the WNBA, Sue Bird is eighth in career steals with 592. She averages 1.3 steals per game for her career, which included one season missed due to injury. In eight of the 14 years she played, Bird recorded 1.4 or more steals per contest. Her 592 career steals rank fourth among active players, and there's a good chance she moves up on the all-time list this year.

SEATTLE ADDS A SWORD(S)

Seattle's frontline got a lot taller in late January thanks to the acquisition of 6-6 center Carolyn Swords. The Storm traded its sixth and 18th picks in the 2017 WNBA Draft with Washington to get the Boston College graduate out to Seattle. The Mystics, as part of the three-way swap, sent Kia Vaughn and Bria Hartley to New York. In her final season with the Liberty, Swords averaged a career-best 5.2 points and 4.6 rebounds per game while shooting 57 percent from the floor.

BACK FOR SECONDS

In 2016, Breanna Stewart simply shattered the Storm's all-time rookie records, and the New York native is poised to carry the momentum over to her sophomore campaign. The reigning WNBA Rookie of the Year and All-WNBA Second Team selection, Stewart set Storm rookie records for points (621), field goals (208), rebounds (317) and minutes (1,179), and she also tied the single-season block record with 64. Stewart scored 20+ points in 15 games, including a historic, single-record tally of 38 vs. Atlanta on June 28, 2016.

A SHINY, NEW JEWELL

Jewell Loyd's jump from her rookie campaign to year two in the WNBA paid dividends in Seattle's late-season push for its 11th playoff appearance in franchise history. Loyd's points-per-game average jumped 5.8 points (from 10.7 to 16.5), and she also nearly doubled her assist average to 3.4 per contest in 2016. Loyd's game-winner at Phoenix snapped a nine-game losing streak to the Mercury and gave Seattle its first win of the 2016 season, and she later netted a career-high 32 points in a 14-point win over the Mercury on June 3, 2016.

HOME, SWEET HOME

On Feb. 8, 2017, Seattle inked sharpshooter Sami Whitcomb to its training camp roster, allowing the former University of Washington standout to return to Seattle. With five years of international experience, Whitcomb has most recently played for the Perth Lynx in Australia, where she totaled 24.0 points, 5.4 rebounds and two assists per game. While playing for the Huskies during her college career, Whitcomb led the team in scoring (13.0 PPG), rebounds (5.6 RPG) and assists (2.5 APG).

STORM TRIO COLLECTS POSTSEASON AWARDS

Seattle boasted the most players on the 2016 All-WNBA First and Second Teams, highlighted by Sue Bird's first team recognition and recipient of the Peak Performer Award as the league leader in assists (5.8 per game). Breanna Stewart (18.3 PPG, 9.3 RPG) was named the 2016 Rookie of the Year, and both she and Jewell Loyd (16.5 PPG, 3.4 APG) earned second team recognition. Together, the trio accounted for nearly 59 percent of the team's offense and 66 percent of its team assists.

THE BIG 2-5

In the first three games of the 2017 campaign, Jewell Loyd recorded at least 25 points in each contest, all of which she accomplished on 55.6 percent shooting or better. She hit 10 field goals in each game, and on May 21 vs. Washington, she went 10-for-14 from the floor for a 71.4 percent clip. She now has five 25-point games in 2017.

MIGHT WANT TO GUARD LANG

Crystal Langhorne sits third all-time on the WNBA's field goal percentage charts. A career 56.6 percent shooter, Langhorne has led the Storm in scoring twice since joining the team and in consecutive seasons (2014, 2015).

LOYD JOINS 1,000-POINT CLUB

On May 21 against Washington at KeyArena, Jewell Loyd scored her 1,000th-career point in just her third pro season. The bucket came amidst a furious Seattle run in the third quarter, as she nailed a step-back jumper with 31.9 seconds left. The former Notre Dame standout has simply changed the complexion of the Storm this season, averaging 26 points per game and shooting 60 percent (30-for-50) from the field.

RETURNING TO THE NEST

In her 16th season with the Storm, Sue Bird made her return to the lineup on May 21 against the Washington Mystics after missing the first two games of the season. A 2016 All-WNBA First Team selection, Bird picked up right where she left off from last season, tallying nine points and a game-high 10 assists in 29 minutes of action. At age 36, Bird is the oldest active player in the league.

EN FUEGO FROM THE GET-GO

For the sixth time in her career on June 13 against the Atlanta Dream, Jewell Loyd netted at least 15 first-half points, as she recorded 16 points in the opening 20 minutes. She's done it three times in 2017 - On May 21 vs. Washington, Loyd posted 17 points in 16 minutes on 6-for-8 shooting, including a 2-for-2 effort from downtown. In the season opener at Los Angeles on May 13, she scored 18 in the first half and finished the contest with a game-high 25 points

MUST BE A NEW YORK THING

Two former UCONN standouts and New York natives in Sue Bird and Breanna Stewart teamed up for double-doubles in an eight-point Storm loss at New York on June 11. Bird earned her 22nd-career double-double with 21 points and 10 dimes, which were also season-high efforts for the 16-year veteran. Despite fouling out midway through the fourth quarter, Stewart notched 23 points and 10 rebounds in the losing effort.

SETTING THE HUSKY SCENE

Seattle's roster contains a pair of recent UCONN graduates in 2016 WNBA Rookie of the Year Breanna Stewart and Kaleena Mosqueda Lewis, who were college teammates for three years. But tonight's matchup also features two of the oldest and most successful players in WNBA history in Sue Bird and Diana Taurasi, who went undefeated (39-0) during Bird's senior year on the way to cashing in a national title together at UCONN in 2002. Taurasi is the WNBA's all-time scoring leader (7,494), while Bird is closing in on the all-time assist record.

STEWIE COMES IN CLUTCH

Breanna Stewart's late-game heroics were what ultimately sealed the deal for Seattle in its home-opening win vs. Indiana on May 14. Stewart grabbed a key offensive rebound before nailing the go-ahead three-pointer with 1:40 left to play, and she went on to drop a dime to Crystal Langhorne to make it a four-point game before coming up with a huge rejection at the 24.9 mark. Stewart battled through foul trouble and registered 15 points and seven rebounds.

WHITCOMB'S 15 MINUTES OF FAME

Prior to the May 26 meeting with New York, Sami Whitcomb had only seen action in a total of nine minutes. But Seattle needed the former University of Washington to defeat the Liberty, as she scored 22 second-half points to anchor a big Storm comeback from 10 down. Whitcomb buried six treys during that stretch, which tied a WNBA record for the most three's made by a player in one half.

LET ME LEND YOU A DIME

While Sue Bird is closing in on the all-time assist record in WNBA history, other Storm players like Jewell Loyd are eclipsing their own milestones. On June 6 in an 85-76 win over San Antonio, Loyd recorded a season-high six dimes, including assist No. 200 for her career, which she notched at the 9:07 mark of the third quarter on a pass to Breanna Stewart. Loyd also reached the 1,000-point milestone earlier this season on May 21.

LOYD'S 3-POINT REVOLUTION

It's no question that Jewell Loyd's shooting ability has improved significantly since her rookie season. In fact, it took just five games for the former Notre Dame superstar to surpass her three-point field goal total from her rookie campaign. In 2015, Loyd went 10-for-48 from deep for 20.8 percent. This season, she has made 13 treys from beyond the arc.

BIRD SKIES PAST TINA THOMPSON FOR THREE'S

With a 4-for-5 effort from downtown on June 11 at New York, Bird passed Tina Thompson, a former Storm player, to move to fourth all-time in the WNBA record books for treys made. Bird has gone 749-for-1,948 (38.4 percent) from beyond the arc during her career and needs 81 more three's to pass Becky Hammon in the No. 3 spot. Bird has been one of the most efficient outside shooters, hitting 38.4 percent of her three's, which ties for third all-time in WNBA history.

STEWIE STYMIES THE STARS

In a 75-57 win over San Antonio on June 18, Breanna Stewart took over in the second half, scoring eight straight points to help Seattle turn a six-point lead into a 15-point cushion. She finished with 22 points, as well as a season-high 15 rebounds and career-best five blocks. In the last five games, Stewart is averaging 21.2 points and 9.6 boards per affair. She's notched three double-doubles in 2017 and has 15 for her career.

#WNBAVOTE

As of June 13, balloting is open for Verizon WNBA All-Star 2017, set to take place on July 22 at KeyArena (12:30 p.m. PT). Voting can be conducted on a variety of platforms, including WNBA.com (WNBA.com/vote), Facebook, Twitter and the WNBA App. On Twitter, voters can tweet, retweet or reply with a WNBA player's first and last name or Twitter handle, along with the hashtag #WNBAVOTE. On Facebook, voters can post the player's first and last name along with the hashtag #WNBAVOTE.

TEAM NOTES

HOT FINISH TO 2016

The Storm won five of its last six to cap the regular season in 2016 and earn the No. 7 seed in the WNBA Playoffs, its 11th appearance in franchise history. Three of those triumphs came on the road, and Seattle won those five games by an average of 13.8 points. In Seattle's second to last home game, the Storm took down soon-to-be WNBA champion Los Angeles by an 18-point (78-60) margin, as Breanna Stewart led the way with her 15th 20+ point effort of the season. Seattle looked to ride the momentum of last year's finish and carry it over to this season, and the team did just that, notching its best start since the 2010 campaign, a year in which the team won its second WNBA title.

WELCOME HOME

Since its inaugural WNBA season in 2000, the Storm is 11-7 in home openers, including an 9-3 mark in its last 12. Seattle has faced Los Angeles in seven of the 16 home openers, going 3-4 in those games.

ROAD WARRIORS

Although five of Seattle's first six games in 2017 will take place inside the friendly confines of KeyArena, the Storm will face a brutal road slate in August that covers 21,374 miles across six road contests in five different states. Last season, the Storm dropped 10 of 13 road games before fighting back to win three of its last five.

TEMPERING THE FEVER

Seattle accomplished quite a few feats when it toppled Indiana by a 94-70 margin on May 28 at KeyArena. The Storm tied a franchise record for the best single-game field goal percentage (61.4), earned two wins vs. the Fever in Seattle for the first time in franchise history and tied a franchise record for the most points (94) scored against Indiana.

THE POWER OF THREE

In Seattle's 87-81 win over New York on May 26, the Storm matched a franchise high with 14 three-pointers on 14-for-28 shooting. Nine of those 14 came in the second half, as Sami Whitcomb came off the bench to net six treys, which tied a WNBA record for the most three's made in a half by a single player. The last time Seattle hit at least 14 treys came on Sept. 6, 2012 against Tulsa.

TAKING CARE OF THE ROCK

After committing 43 turnovers in its first two contests of the 2017 campaign, the Storm only averaged 12.3 in its next three home wins over Washington (May 21), New York (May 26) and Indiana (May 28). Coincidentally, Sue Bird made her return to the lineup when Seattle's miscues went down, showing just how important the 16-year veteran is to the team.

BEST START SINCE 2010

Seattle opened the 2017 campaign 4-1 to muster its best start since the 2010 campaign, the same year the team went on to win its second WNBA title. After losing at Los Angeles in the season opener on May 13, Seattle averaged 87.3 points in its next four victories.

STORM TABBED FIFTH IN 6TH AP POWER POLL

STORM SPLITS WITH MERCURY IN PRESEASON

The Storm split its 2017 preseason slate with the Phoenix Mercury, notching a 22-point (86-64) win in Seattle on May 3 before dropping a 17-point (72-55) decision on the road. Jewell Loyd led Seattle offensively, averaging 13.5 points and shooting a perfect 10-for-10 from the free throw line. Adding a spark off the bench, Sami Whitcomb netted 27 total points in the two games, including six three's.

REACHING NEW HEIGHTS

The Storm's 86 total points in the preseason opener vs. Phoenix set a franchise record for the most points tallied in a preseason game. After leading by only eight (39-31) at halftime, Seattle shot 51.3 percent (20-for-39) in the second half and outscored the Mercury by 14 in the final 20 minutes to seal an 86-64 victory. Seattle improved to 19-25 in preseason games, including a 12-9 mark at KeyArena.

FREE POINTS MAKE A DIFFERENCE

If Seattle has proved anything thus far in 2017, it's that it can beat teams at the charity stripe. In the home opener vs. Indiana on May 14, the Storm outscored the Fever by 11 at the line. Freebees came up big two weeks later in a showdown with New York, as Seattle outscored the Liberty, 25-10, at the line to seal an 87-81 win. The Storm has shot a league-best 88.2 percent from the line in 2017.

BACK ABOVE .500

With an 81-71 win over Washington on May 21, the Storm moved above .500 for the first time since June 6, 2015. Seattle had posted losing records in both 2015 and 2016, but the Storm is currently enjoying a 6-5 record.

ANY GIVEN NIGHT...

Seattle head coach Jenny Boucek pointed out that any player on the Storm roster can explode on any given night, and that has certainly been the indication this season. In a come-from-behind win over New York on May 26, Sami Whitcomb erupted for 22 points, all of which came in the second half. Two days later, Alysha Clark scored a season-high 22 points in a 24-point win over Indiana. While she didn't earn game-high honors, Crystal Langhorne has booked two 17-point performances in 2017, and Jewell Loyd has led the team in scoring on five occasions. Breanna Stewart has also tallied team-high honors for points three times in 2017.

BOUNCING BACK WITH AUTHORITY

With an 18-point (75-57) win over San Antonio on June 18, Seattle improved to 15-8 in games immediately following a loss since the 2016 campaign. In those 23 games, the Storm has averaged 83.2 points per game while holding its opponents to nearly 78 points per contest.

SETTING A STANDARD ON OFFENSE

As of June 20, Seattle currently ranks in the top five in six statistical categories on the offensive end, including:

- #2 assists per game (18.7)
- #2 three's made per game (6.9)
- #3 field goal percentage (47.0)
- #3 free throw percentage (85.8)
- #4 three-point field goal percentage (35.2)
- #5 free throws made per game (18.2)

JENNY BOUCEK BIOGRAPHY

WNBA Head Coaching Record: 72-88
Seattle Storm Head Coaching Record: 32-47
Seasons in the WNBA: 18th Season
Seasons with the Storm: 11th Season (3rd as Head Coach)

JENNY BOUCEK

On Jan. 20, 2015, Jenny Boucek was named the fourth head coach in the history of the Seattle Storm and immediately set about rebuilding the team. In her two seasons at the helm, she coached consecutive WNBA Rookie of the Year winners in Jewell Loyd (2015) and Breanna Stewart (2016).

Following a 10-24 campaign in 2015 with a roster that featured three rookies, Boucek's 2016 Storm improved to 16-18 for the franchise's first 15+ win season and playoff berth since 2013. Immediately prior to becoming the team's head coach, she spent four seasons with the Storm under then-head coach Brian Agler, rejoining the defending WNBA champions in 2010 as Dir. of Player Development and Scouting. She was promoted to associate head coach in 2014.

Boucek has been involved in the WNBA since it's inaugural season, suiting up for the Cleveland Rockers in 1997. Following a career-ending injury in 1998, she began her WNBA coaching career as an assistant with the Washington Mystics in 1999. She then spent three seasons, 2000-02, in the same capacity with the Miami Sol. Boucek enjoyed her first stint in Seattle on Anne Donovan's staff from 2003-05, a span which included the franchise's first WNBA Championship in 2004. Her first stop as a WNBA head coach came in Sacramento, leading the now-defunct Sacramento Monarchs to a 40-41 clip over two-plus seasons, spanning 2007-09.

Notably respected as one of the top coaches in the league, Boucek has spent much of her career as a student of the game. She served as an advanced scout with the Seattle SuperSonics, and more recently, had full access to Dallas Mavericks Head Coach Rick Carlisle's training camp in September and October of 2014. She was involved in all coaches meetings, film and practice sessions and player meetings.

Boucek also played in Iceland in 1998 and was voted the country's best player after averaging 23 points, seven rebounds and six assists. She returned to Cleveland for the 1998 season but was forced to retire due to a career-ending back injury.

A four-year starter at the University of Virginia (1992-96), Boucek helped lead the Cavaliers to four regular-season ACC Championships and three NCAA Elite Eight appearances. She was a two-time GTE Academic All-American team member and two-time ACC selection. Boucek twice earned team Defensive Player of the Year honors and finished her career at Virginia as a member of the 1,000-point club. She also competed in the U.S. Olympic Festival in 1993.
