2015-16 CHARITABLE PARTNERS

The Texas Legends are proud to announce, for the third year straight, 24 charitable partnerships that will be displayed across the 24 home games in 2015-16. The Legends are the only team in NBA Development League history to host 24 specialty jersey nights, all of which are charitably themed. Each home game, the team will wear a different jersey representing a local, regional or national charity or cause—providing a tremendous amount of exposure and awareness to the charity.

Charities and causes involved over the past five seasons have collected significant donations, increased volunteer hours, gained media exposure and experienced more than 150,000 impressions across the world. With an increased international media reach, the Legends expect these numbers to multiply this season.

The jersey nights are designed to benefit the charity in funding and exposure, but also to benefit the Legends fan base by educating them on the outreach opportunities in North Texas and providing new avenues for philanthropic efforts.

As in years past, the evenings vary greatly in size of charity and of sponsor, but each night has a unique purpose and passion.

2015-16 CHARITABLE PARTNERS

DONNIE NELSON

One of the most respected minds in the NBA, Donnie Nelson is involved in every aspect of the Mavericks basketball operations. Nelson, who owns 29 years of NBA experience, came to Dallas on Jan. 2, 1998, after three seasons as an assistant coach with the Phoenix Suns. Nelson was instrumental in rebuilding a team that suffered a decade-long playoff drought into a perennial playoff team and championship contender. Under Nelson, the Mavericks have won 63.3% (801-464) of their games with three 60+ win seasons, including a franchise-record 67-win season in 2007, which tied for the sixth-best record in NBA history.

The Mavericks are also one of only six NBA franchises to win 60 games or more three times in a five-year span. During his tenure, the Mavericks have made the playoffs in 13 of the last 14 seasons, been to the Western Conference Finals three times, advanced to the NBA Finals twice, captured their first Division title in 20 years in 2007 and won their first World Championship in 2011. Nelson successfully coached the Mavericks while his father and former head coach, Don Nelson, was recovering from cancer surgery in 2000-01. Donnie led the team to a 15-8 record while serving as head coach. He was the top assistant to his father at Golden State, where he served the organization a total of eight seasons (1986-94). Nelson was also a regional scout for the Milwaukee Bucks for two seasons (1984-86).

From 1990-2006, Nelson served as an assistant coach for the Lithuanian National Team. In that span, he helped them win three bronze medals in four Olympiads, a silver medal in the 1995 European Championships and a gold medal in the 2003 European Championships. In appreciation of his contributions, Nelson was awarded the Grand Cross of the Commander by the President of Lithuania in 2004. In 1994, Nelson proudly served as a scout for USA Basketball at the World Championships in Toronto. Dream Team II went undefeated on their way to capturing a gold medal that year.

Nelson's tireless efforts helped crack two walls that once seemed unbreakable. He was responsible for signing the first player from both the Soviet Union (Sarunas Marciulionis) and China (Wang Zhizhi) to NBA contracts. In addition, Nelson holds the honor of being the only American coach to participate in a Soviet National training camp. On June 24, 1998, Nelson engineered a deal that brought a relatively unknown German and an unheralded Canadian to Dallas. Both Dirk Nowitzki (2007) and Steve Nash (2005, 2006) would go on to be named the NBA's Most Valuable Player, giving the Mavericks the distinction of being the only team in history to acquire two future MVPs in the same transaction. "Donnie has been my biggest supporter from day one," said 12-time NBA All-Star, 2007 MVP and 2011 NBA Finals MVP Dirk Nowitzki. "He works harder than any coach or president in the NBA. He thinks about basketball 24 hours a day."

Nelson also serves as the Chief Advisor for the Chinese National Basketball Team. During his five years of service, they equaled their all-time best Olympic finish (8th) in Athens and won the Gold Medal at the 2005 and 2007 Asian Championships. In 2008, he helped coach the team to an eighth-place finish in the Beijing Olympics. Nelson's first exposure to the continent of Africa took place in 1992. He has conducted clinics in North Africa, Senegal, Nigeria and South Africa. Nelson is especially proud to be associated with the NBA's Basketball Without Borders program in Africa. This outreach program provides educational opportunities to challenged African athletes.

In December 2002, Nelson's heart for disadvantaged youth led to the creation of the Assist Youth Foundation, which has since combined with the charity organization known as Little Heroes. The foundation's goal is to advance opportunities for underprivileged kids in the Dallas-Fort Worth Metroplex and across the globe. Additionally, he proudly serves on the board of the Make-a-Wish Foundation. In 2009, Nelson became the co-owner of a new NBA D-League team, the Texas Legends, that is located in Frisco, Texas. A 1986 graduate of Wheaton College (Ill.), Nelson was inducted into the school's Hall of Honor on Oct. 3, 1997. He led Wheaton in scoring and was an ABC All-Midwest selection. Born Sept. 10, 1962, he and his wife, Lotta, have a daughter, Christie (8/10/92) and a son, D.J. (5/24/94).

EVAN WYLY

Evan Wyly is a Founder and an Owner of the Texas Legends, since 2009. He is a Founder of Maverick Capital, an investment management firm, since 1990, serving as a Managing Partner through 2007. He was a Founder and Director of Green Mountain Energy, the nation's leading provider of cleaner energy from 1997 until its sale in 2010, serving as Chairman from 2003. He has also served as a director of three publicly traded companies: Sterling Commerce from 1995 to 2000, Sterling Software from 1992 to 2000, and Michaels Stores from 1992 to 2001. He is a native of Dallas, Texas. He earned a B.A. in Economics from Princeton University and an M.B.A. from Harvard Business School. He is a member of the World Presidents' Organization and a member emeritus of the Advisory Faculty of the Institute for Private Investors. He serves on the board of the Maverick Capital Foundation and has served on the boards of several other not-for-profit organizations. He is married and has 3 children and 2 grandchildren.

EDUARDO NAJERA

Eduardo Najera retired from the NBA in 2013 to become the first Mexican-born head coach in the NBA Development League, General Manager and minority owner of the Texas Legends, while holding a front office job with the Dallas Mavericks. As General Manager he is involved in all major decisions for the Texas Legends which include player transactions, scouting and drafting.

Eduardo began his twelve year stint as a player in the NBA with the Dallas Mavericks in 2000 following four years of play at the University of Oklahoma. He was the first Mexican-born player to be drafted in NBA history. He played with the Dallas Mavericks, Golden State Warriors, Denver Nuggets, New Jersey Nets, a second stint with Dallas, and finished his career with the Charlotte Bobcats. In 639 career games (85 starts), he averaged 5.2 points and 4.2 rebounds in 18.7 minutes per game.

Throughout his NBA career, he was a leader on and off the court and was known as a dependable member of the team and valued member of the locker room. The work ethic that Eduardo exhibited as a player transcended into keeping him on the court in a new capacity as head coach. His knowledge of the NBA game served him well in his first year with the Texas Legends and provides great promise for a long-term future in the NBA.

Eduardo commanded respect both on and off the court from his players. In his first season with the Legends he promoted four players to be called up to the NBA (Dallas Mavericks: Chris Douglas-Roberts, Mike James, Justin Dentmon, and Golden State: Dwayne Jones). He was responsible for hiring and managing a full coaching staff, scouting talent, and coordinating player selection, trades and free agency. He developed extensive plans for training camp and practices, and solicited sponsorships in excess of $1M through his connections in Mexico and Latin America. As a coach, he also has the potential to create new paths for minorities in basketball and develop strong connections between his neighboring native country, Mexico, and the NBA.

His mission is simple: "To carry forward my passion of the game, competitive spirit, and will to win by coaching, mentoring, and leading a team of players. My philosophy is to develop not only great athletes, but great human beings through the game of basketball, which provides values, fundamentals, and lessons that can be used in every aspect of life."

When Eduardo is not coaching or playing, he dedicates the majority of his free time to his family and friends. He enjoys traveling, remaining active, dining, and helping others. He was the Honorary Chairman for St. Jude's in 2013, has hosted more than 300 basketball camps and clinics around the world. He founded The Najera League of Basketball in Mexico, which now has 30,000 boys & girls practicing the sport. He launched Eduardo Najera Foundation for Latin Achievement, participated in the basketball without borders tournament in Rio de Janeiro Brazil in 2004 and Mexico in 2009. He hosted fundraising events for children of war-torn Afghanistan in conjunction with the NBA, US Fund for UNICEF and Pier 1 and has represented more than a dozen brands in and around the world.

COACHING STAFF

NICK VAN EXEL spent 13 years in the NBA as a player. He was drafted in the second round by the Los Angeles Lakers where he spent five seasons and was named an NBA All-Star. Van Exel then played for the Denver Nuggets, Dallas Mavericks (alongside former Legends head coach Eduardo Najera), Golden State Warriors, Portland Trail Blazers and San Antonio Spurs. He retired from the NBA in 2006 and later spent two years in player development with the Atlanta Hawks before joining the Milwaukee Bucks as an assistant coach. Van Exel joined Najera's staff last season as Associate Head Coach and is entering his first season as Head Coach.

DONNIE BOYCE spent nine years overseas after two years with the Atlanta Hawks. Boyce played for the University of Colorado where he became the all-time leading scorer in 1995. Returning to his alma mater, Boyce began his coaching career in 2012 at Proviso East High School in Maywood, Illinois. In his first two seasons Boyce led the team to a 61-6 record and appearances in the state semi-finals and finals.

WALTER PITTS went straight into coaching out of college, serving as an assistant at the University of North Carolina-Greensboro and Texas Southern University. Pitts played for the University of Alabama, making an appearance in the NCAA Tournament and receiving the Guy Lee Turner Defensive award both seasons.

DESAGANA DIOP retired from the NBA in 2013 after 12 years of service. Diop was drafted by the Cleveland Cavaliers in 2001 where he spent four seasons before joining the Mavericks. Diop was known around the league for his shot-blocking ability and brings a unique perspective to the coaches' bench as a former post player. Diop will work with the post players to develop agility under the basket and provide guidance from a long NBA career.

RAPHAEL SMITH has spent the past several years coaching youth sports in the DFW area. He will focus on player development both on and off the court.

RICHARD GRIFFIN spent last season with the Legends as a basketball operations assistant. Griffin will move into Player Development alongside Smith and will utilize his knowledge of the league to assist young players with their transition.

COMMUNITY RELATIONS

The Texas Legends foundation, Texas Legends Care, has announced that Ryan, LLC will be the foundation's presenting sponsor.

Ryan is an award-winning tax services firm with the largest indirect and property tax practices in North America. The Firm ranked number six on the 25 best medium-size companies to work for in the United States, published in FORTUNE magazine, and was recently named to the 2013 Working Mothers 100 Best Companies list. The Ryan Foundation has contributed over $4 million and countless hours of service to over 18 organizations including Susan G. Komen, March of Dimes, and the Make-A-Wish Foundation. Through the generosity of their employees Ryan maintains a focus on service to the community and has chosen to extend this outreach through Texas Legends Care.

"Ryan's success has resulted in substantial rewards for our associates, and it is their generosity and our Firm's culture of giving back to the community that has inspired our partnership with The Texas Legends," said G. Brint Ryan, Chairman and CEO of Ryan. "All of us at Ryan are proud to support the youth programs and community development initiatives of the Texas Legends Care Foundation"

Texas Legends Care is a 501c3 non-profit organization, presented by Ryan LLC, which is organized and operated to provide assistance to young people from our community through programs stressing education, good health and skills necessary for their future success. In the months of June and July, Texas Legends Care launched basketball clinic initiatives in both South Dallas and Las Vegas.

"We are excited to have Ryan as the presenting partner of Texas Legends Care," commented Legends owner Donnie Nelson. "Giving back to the community in a variety of ways has been in the Legends DNA since day one, as I know it has been at Ryan, LLC – and the partnership with Texas Legends Care is a great way to continue to give back on a year-round basis."

DUNKER & GENEROUS GEORGE

Dunker is the official mascot of the Texas Legends. The big, blue dog travels across the metroplex putting a smile on children's faces and spreading the word of the fun at Dr Pepper Arena! Dunker has been the Legends mascot for 5 years.

Generous George is a world-renowned traveling one-man basketball show who calls Legends' games his home. George visits all the local schools with his bag of tricks-teaching kids to stay active and joining education with the fun of basketball.

MEDIA INFORMATION

DR PEPPER ARENA

2601 Avenue of the Stars
Frisco, TX 75034

Capacity: 6,000

Dr Pepper Arena is home to the Texas Legends as well as the home practice facility and executive offices of the NHL's Dallas Stars. Outside the sports world the arena hosts a number of concerts, graduation ceremonies, circus shows and church congregations.

Dr Pepper Arena is located at Gaylord and Dallas North Tollway. The facility holds between 6,000 and 7,000 and has a 2,000 vehicle parking garage on-site.

MEDIA GUIDELINES

The Texas Legends welcome you to the 2015-16 NBA Development League season. It is our goal to provide a professional and productive working environment. To assist in your coverage of the Legends please note the following:

CREDENTIALS: You must have a Legends credential (season or single-game) or an NBA Development League media pass to be admitted to Dr Pepper Arena, and your credential must be visibly worn at all times. Credentials should be requested through the 'Legends' Media Director. Your credential does not guarantee a seat.

All credentials can be picked up at the media entrance located inside the loading dock/valet entrance. Season and single-game credentials are non-transferable and any unauthorized use will subject the bearer to ejection from Dr Pepper Arena and the forfeiture of the credential. No autographs are allowed during media access periods.

MEDIA ENTRANCE: All members of the media must enter Dr Pepper Arena through the media entrance (Southeast corner of the arena inside loading dock) which opens two hours prior to game time.

TV AND RADIO: Visiting television broadcast positions will be courtside. Radio broadcast positions will be on the courtside press table. If statisticians are desired, please make arrangements with the Media Department at least 24 hours before game time. All requests for pregame or postgame interviews should be directed to the Media Director.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Photographers are asked to keep off of the sidelines and to be considerate of the season ticket holders seated directly behind them.

Photographers are asked to wear rubber-soled shoes and are required to have rubber lens shades for their cameras. Only television photographers doing postgame interviews will have access to locker room areas.

LOCKER ROOMS: In accordance with NBA policy, both locker rooms are open to members of the media during pregame for a 45-minute period that ends 45 minutes before the scheduled game time. Postgame media availability follows a 10-minute cooling off period. Only working members of the press with the appropriate print or video credentials will be admitted to the locker rooms; no photo-only media will be allowed into the locker room.

CELL PHONE USE IN LOCKER ROOM: Per league policy, cell phones are no longer permitted to be used in the locker room by any media member.

PARKING: Full-season parking passes will be assigned by the Media Department on a limited basis. For those media members who receive full-season parking privileges, the media parking area will be communicated directly.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact Britney Wynn at (972)824-7876 or bwynn@texlegends.com.
